that it was started by the girls, who perfected the organization, secured 625 members and a maintenance fund of $1000 for the first year before turning it over to the ladies for management. For two months and a half, under the leadership of Mies Pearl Tyer, who was acting president until the board of ladies could be assembled, the young women of the city worked, drawing the aubstantial people of the community to them, one by one, as they could be interested, until the plans were complete, and with a big banquet the girls presented the organization to the women of Boise.

This was the largest women's banquet which has ever been given in the state, the auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. in which it was held, being completely filled. The reports of the temporary committees were embodied in toasts, making the programme spicy and full of interest. Miss Frances C. Gage of Scattle, the traveling secretary of the northwest, was present and presided at this function. The board of directors was voted upon, and consists of the strengest women of the city, who are well known, not only for the positions which their hisbands occupy, but for their own Intelligence and skill in managing affairs. The board consists of Mesdames C. E. Arney, C. C. Anderson, W. J. Ables, A. E. Cruzen, F. S. Dietrich, J. R. Good, Sv. W. H. Gibson, M. E. Hopkins, E. M. Hoover, T. B. Lanton, C. S. Meek, H. E. McElroy, R. L. Nourse, S. R. Rightenour, Fay Young, and Allesses Nellie Ireton, Constance Morris and Pearl Tyer, Mrs. W. H. Gibson was elected president, Mrs. W. H. Gibson was elected president.

So large and strong is the association that it is necessary to have a building constructed for its housing as it is impossible to secure satisfactory quarters in the crowded office buildings. The permanent home will be in one of the new buildings and will occupy the second and third floors. There will be a gymnasium, for which the girls have been asking from the beginning; a pleasant cafeteria, where the girls may get a noon lunch without going to the public restaurant; rest rooms, a private dining room, committee rooms, and several bedrooms that the stranger girls may be cared for until they may find homes in the residence portion of the city.

For the summer, while this building is in the course of construction, two office rooms have been rented in the McCarriy building, one of which is large enough for an assembly hall, and a secretary will immediately be placed in charge. Tennis courts have been secured and arrangements are being perfected with the Natatorium management for a special evening cach week for the girls at that resort. It is proposed to hold the Sunday afternoon meetings upon one of the slordy lawns of the city.

Was Bitter Against City Administration and Took Up Fight Himself.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 12.—Wallace A. Bussell, 23 years old, sought to take the Seattle vice crusade into his own hands early this morning by walking into the Monte Carlo saloon and gamb-ling house and shooting the proprietor. Joseph Bonner, to death with a rifle Bussell is the son of C. B. Bussell, one of the richest men in Seattle.

The young man's action was the culmination of an anti-vice campaign in which Bussell took an active part and which is believed to have impaired his reason. He walked into the saloon and without warning opened fire on Bonner, who steed at the end of the bar. Bonner emptied his revolver, without effect, and Bussell was captured by a policeman as he ran from the place, slightly wounded by a shot from the policeman's revolver.

Bussell's father declared he would clear the young man of responsibility for his acts. Mr. Bussell said:

Crazed by Crusade.

"For some time my son's mind has dwelt on the vice and erime to be found in cities and he has read every serap of fletion furnished by the magazines. He recently associated himself with a secret society whose purpose is to rid Seattle of vice. He has paid hun-dreds of dollars to this society and has promised thousands more. He has been very bitter toward the present city administration.

"I have no doubt that it was this mania against vice that seat him down to that place last night and into all this trouble. He took it upon himself to raid a supposed gambling resort single handed and was beside himself when he started shooting.

"Wallace came home last night and his mother heard him go down stairs at 2 o'clock. She did not hear him leave the house and supposed that he had returned to bed. It was at that time he took my rifle and earlridge belt and set out on his mission."
